

October/November WTHS News

October 18th, Worcester Tech hosted the A&S Meeting. For our school presentation, we demonstrated The National Red Ribbon Week Theme: Your Future is Key, So Stay Drug Free by presenting a Trades produced video, a Criminal Justice CSI Unit demonstration, and a Biomed skit.

Also on October 18th, Early Childhood students visited Snow Hill Christian School.

October 20th, The Future Farmers of America club participated in the FFA Land Judging Competition in Queenstown.

October 24th, WBOC News highlighted the Maryland State Highway Administration's plan to involve Pre-engineering students as work continues on Route 113.

October 26th, Early Childhood students worked with students in SHES classrooms.

October 27th, Masonry students completed a sidewalk addition to Worcester Tech.

October 27th, Worcester Tech's own Julia Hill was honored as the County Teacher of the Year at the MSDE Gala in Baltimore.

October 31st, Worcester Tech teachers dressed up for Halloween while Mrs. Bloxom was away presenting at the PLTW Counselors Conference in Baltimore.

November 1st, Criminal Justice and Nursing students visited the Maryland State Police Forensic Lab in Pikesville.

November 1st & 16th, Little Bears & Sunflowers Daycare students visited Worcester Tech where they were taught lessons by Early Childhood students.

November 2nd, SkillsUSA Officers participated in Fall Conference at the Carousel and presented Mr. Bill Gordy with an Honorary Life Membership.

November 6th, WBOC News highlighted how Culinary students turn their interest into real life catering experiences in the world of fine dining.

November 8th, Worcester Tech opened its new school store.

November 9th, three Pre-engineering students participated in The Eastern Shore High School Mathematics Competition at Salisbury University.

Also on November 9th, Teacher Academy students toured the Salisbury University campus, sat in on education classes and met with department chairs.

November 10th, Worcester Tech held Parent Conferences.

November 13th through 17th, Worcester Tech's student organizations celebrated American Education week giving Hershey's Kisses to Sensational Students, Plants to Family and Community Partners for Helping Students Grow, Doughnuts to Steadfast Support Staff and Brave Bus Drivers, Cupcakes to Talented Teachers, Snack Bags to Stalwart Substitutes, and Books to Newborn County Babies.

November 14th, Forensics students visited The Office of the Chief Medical Officer and the Anatomy Gift Registry Surgical Lab in Hanover.

November 15th & 17th, Worcester Tech hosted The County 6th Grade STEM Fest.

November 16th, Worcester Tech Student Ambassadors participated in the SDMS Health Fair.

That's just a sampling of the great things happening at our home high schools satellite campus!